AN APPEAL

To the Generous People of Texas from a Furthful State Officer's Widow.

I am a widow with four children-three little girls and a baby boy-all too small to assist me in making a living. My husband was a deputy sheriff of Comanche county. Leach, a desperate character, drank and overriding in his desperate role the people in our quiet lit-tle village in their peaceful pursuits. In the attempt to arrest said character my hus band, J. N. Martin, was brutally murdered by said Leach shooting him mortally through the body. In making this appear to your generosity, I will say my husband was poor, but high minded; honorable, sober and industrious, and so considered by all who knew him. I am willing to work, but depression of times, and being situated in an unfavorable field for female labor, I find myself in straightened cir-comstances, and my greatet desire being to educate and rear my children to be cul-tured, moral and useful to society, I appeal to your generosity to contribute what you feel able to lend to the Lord by giving to the widow and orposus. My husband, in offering his life on the altar or law and order, had implicit confidence that his widow and orphans would not want while their lot was cast among the noble people of Texas, and, having faith in his judgment, I cannot believe that the wolf will come to my door when the good people of Texas know I am needy. If you should feel able to contribute, please send your contribution, your name and postoffice address,
